VOL. V. NO. 141.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HAWTHORNE'S OPENING DAY.

The inaugural meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club opened yesterday and a grand opening it was. Everything around the course was in excellent condition and the track was as fast as it can be made. The grandstand and cafes have been newly painted and the handsome paddock has been improved until it is one of the finest in the country. The grass through the infield is green and well kept and the steeplechase course is a picture. In fact there is not one corner about the grounds that is not as spick and span as labor and expense can make it.

Despite the fact that the opening was on an off day, as Monday always is, the attendance numbered in the neighborhood of 5,000. It was a most interested, enthusiastic and well entertained assemblage.

The card offered by Secretary Kuhl secured extra large entry lists, but there was a lot of scratching and as a rule the fields were of reasonable size. Eighteen books drew in and they had more than they could do to handle the money. As five of the six races went to favorites it would be safe to say that the dozen and a half pencilers got a good drubbing.

T. P. Hayes captured the inaugural dash with his big sprinter Opaque, and judging from the way the colt won he can beat almost everything at the track at three-quarters of a mile. Nine started in the Opaque race, and in the field there was a lot of speed. The play, however, was divided among three, Opaque being a 6 to 5 favorite while Eugenia Wickes was quoted at 11 to 5. Goebel opened at three but drifted back to 4 to 1 and was then backed down a point. There was little or nothing to the race as far as a contest was concerned. Opaque broke fourth but immediately went to the front and after setting a terrific pace which stopped the others he won easily in 1:14 flat. Goebel was second and Boney Boy, despite a bad ride, was third.

Only four started in the mile and a quarter event which was run second and Monk Wayman, who is at his best at present, won all the way and never turned a hair.

There was a very evenly balanced lot in the third event, which was a mile dash, and speculation on it was fast and furious. Queen of Song, Gold Fox and Galathee were each backed for "good things." The first named proved to be one and "delivered the goods" in grand style. McCann rode the filly and handled her skillfully. He took a long chance to get through on the first turn and then rated her along cleverly in front down the backstretch. On the bend for home Serrano made a strong bid, and opposite the paddock appeared to be very dangerous, but when Beauchamp called upon him he could not respond and fell back beaten. Below the eighth post Gold Fox passed the fast tiring Serrano and set sail for the Queen, but he could not get up, and at the wire was beaten a full length. Gold Fox had a lot of bad luck and considering this, he ran a very good race. Galathee was pocketed all down the backstretch and at no part of the journey was he dangerous.

Racivan scored a lucky win over an inferior lot in the fourth race. In one of the break-aways Racivan stumbled and threw his rider and then proceeded to run away, but before he had a chance to run far enough to hurt himself he was caught by a stable hand and led back to the post. J. Carter, who was not hurt by his fall, pluckily remounted and won the race away off by himself.

Rome Reapass at last got it through his head that Jockey Knight is not strong enough to ride a big, heavy-headed horse like Goose Liver and put Taber up. The latter rode Goose Liver to perfection and captured the fifth race handsomely by three-quarters of a length from Lobongula. Eleven started in this race but only eight finished and they were strung out for nearly a quarter of a mile. Muskalonge was left at the post, Benamela fell on the first turn, and George Lee bled after passing the half mile ground and was eased up.

The afternoon's sport closed with a five furlong scramble for two-year-olds and Iznik won it running away by a half dozen lengths. Bar-rack, away badly, was second and Fannie Wyn was third. Lord Weir, the favorite, who, it is reported, has worked very fast had no chance from where he got off, and, after showing a lot of speed, finished among the "also rans."

Dick Dwyer was a trifle off and his starting was nowhere up to his standard. This is the first bad day Dwyer has had this season and it must be overlooked.

Manager McAvoy was the busiest man in fourteen states all the afternoon and was on the go all the time. Some of his assistant are inexperienced and must be watched in order to avoid mistakes. The man that takes care of the jockey board seemed to be rattled. He had Hamilton posted as the rider on Iznik instead of McNickle in the last race. He also made a bobble in the second race. Instead of having Gray on Prince Blazes and Vitatos on Ramona he transferred them. This error was not noticed and consequently went through. Taking everything into consideration McAvoy has trouble galore but overcomes them gracefully.

After winning the fifth race Goose Liver was sold to Charles McCafferty for $700. He is a useful selling plater.

Bill Lange, Everett, Mertes and Griffith of the Chicago ball club were visitors. So were Bob Hilliard and a bunch of the "Club's Baby" players.

Pleasing music was furnished by the Cicero Military band.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

B. J. Weller filed suit against W. E. Applegate in the Circuit Court at Covington Wednesday, to settle a partnership between them in three racehorses named Elizabeth R., Prince McClurg and Banish. The plaintiff alleges that the horses were purchased by them and paid for equally, and they have won purses to the amount of $8,000, all of which has been received and retained by the defendant. The plaintiff further alleges that the defendant has made no accounting of his partnership affairs, and without authority from him has sold the horses Elizabeth R. and Banish. He asks that the partnership between them be annulled, that the matter be referred to the Master Commissioner to hear evidence and the court appoint a receiver to take charge of the horse Prince McClurg until he can be sold under orders of court and the proceeds put with the assets of the firm for distribution between the plaintiff and defendant.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Ed Headley went to his home in Lexington Thursday night. He will take his string to Chicago on his return here. Mr. Headley was very sore over the fact that his filly Honeywood was left at the post in her race Thursday evening, and he announced after the race that he would ship to Chicago on his return from Lexington.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Jockey Maher is being criticised in the east for showing an ungovernable temper and flogging horses uselessly in races. It is said, he well nigh out Shoreham to pieces the other day at Gravesend.

BROOKLYN FORM CHART.

—Last Ban. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Mischievous ran a corking good race after a slow beginning. Last Cord's race was surprising, but Clawson rode a very strong finish. There was some interference through the stretch and it seemed that Mischievous and Last Cord fouled Mr. Jersey and Stuart. No foul was claimed, however. Stuart is still a bit short, but should win soon. Colonel Roosevelt closed a big gap in the stretch. He is not ready.

Scratched—Sanitary, 112; 12528 Battle Royal, 112; Daily Report, 112; 12532 Prestige, 112; 12440 Makaland, 112. Mischievous, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Last Cord, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Mr. Jersey, show, evens.

Time, 12½, 23½, 35½, 47½, 1:14½. Winner—Ch. c. by Prince Royal—May Kennedy. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily up. Primate had much the most speed and made a runaway race of it. Entered to be sold for $600 he was bid up to $1,500 but retained by his owner. Mazarin was easily best of the others, closing very strongly. Momentum is improving and about due. Decide was short. Larva ran a bad race and does not seem to be up to his early form.

Scratched—12498 Varus, 100; 12326 Ornamental, 95; 11648 Lady Exile, 90. Overweights—Mazarin, 2 pounds; Hanwell, 3. Primate, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Mazarin, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Momentum, show, 4 to 5. Larva, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

O'Connor rated the winner along behind the field until turning for home. When he gave him his head he passed the others very easily. He seems to be a colt of good class. Entered for $1,500 he was bid up to $2,300 but retained by Mr. Hyland. Alpen was done at seven furlongs. Roysterer had speed for only five furlongs and is not as good as he was.

Scratched—12441 Diminutive, 96. Fly By Night, place, 6 to 5; show, out. Greatland, place, evens; show, out. Alpen, place, 1 to 3. Roysterer, place, evens; show, out.

Time, 12½, 23½, 35½, 48, 1:14½. Winner—B. h. by Falconer—Tincture. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Tinge was a good horse today and drew away very easily at the end. Tyrann showed great improvement. The pace was too fast for Handball with such weight up. Bon Ino is improving and worth watching at a mile. Athy will do with slower ones. Hapsburg seems to be overrated. He got a bad break but could not go to the leaders at any stage and was eased up in the stretch.

Scratched—12601 Caesarian, 123; 12601 Blarneystone, 105; 12436 Fenetta, 103. Overweights—Athy, 4 pounds; Bon Ino, 1. Tinge, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Tyrann, place, 10 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Handball, show, 1 to 2. Hapsburg, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Cassecock—Souvenir.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. Westown was given the race, Governor Budd second and King T. third. White Garters ran wrong side of one flag. She had a world of speed and is a beautiful jumper. Diverson fenced poorly first time around, but improved and finished strong. Westown is a fair jumper. Governor Budd was outpaced all the way. Perion fenced fairly well, but quit early. Populist was sharply played.
Scratched—(11990) Challenear, 167; (12387) Olindo, 167; 12160 Lion Heart, 164; (11341) Decapod, 152; 12099 Iranian, 136; 8205 The Tory, 135.
Overweights—Perion, 1 pound.
Chamblent entry, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Westown, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Governor Budd, place, 9 to 5; show, 4 to 5. King T., show, 4 to 1. Populist, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Irquois—Ogarita.
Post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Opaque was the best and is in great form. He is about the best sprinter at the track at present. At no part of the journey was he ever in trouble. Goebel ran a good honest race. He hung on and fought it out gamely with Boney Boy for the place. The latter had a rough journey and rather a weak ride. Eugenia Wickes was short. She had a lot of speed but quit in the stretch. This race should do her good. Mark Benneville for lower company. Nora C. had no speed.

Scratched—9831 Her Favor, 102; 9465 Helen's Pet, 91.

Winner—B. c. by Major Richards—Blue Bells.
Off at first break to an excellent start. Won easily; second and third were driving. Monk Wayman galloped under a stout pull all the way. He is a good horse and far outclassed his opponents. As a rule he does not run in front, but Beauchamp skillfully placed him there all the way. Banquo II. ran his race. So did Prince Blazes. The pair were fighting hard for the place. Ramona seems to be of little or no account.

Monk Wayman, place, out. Banquo II., place, 4 to 5. Prince Blazes, place, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Escher—Sonata.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were doing their best. Queen of Song was lucky and well ridden. She was fortunate in getting through on the first turn and always had clear sailing. On the turn for home the filly faltered a trifle but finished strongly and with something left. Gold Fox ran a fine race. He met with considerable bad luck. Watch this colt. Serrano weakened when the pinch came. At one time in the stretch he seemed to be winning. Galathee was miserably ridden. Kuhn had him in a pocket all down the back stretch. Throw this race out for Galathee. Harry Nutter was right there. He is a consistent performer. Great Bend had speed but could not last. He pulled up quite sore.

Scratched—12598 Clay Poyater, 102; 12584 Hugh Penny, 106; (12561) Brigade, 97; 12281 Cherry Leaf, 109.
Queen of Song, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Serrano, show, evens. Gold Fox, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Galathee, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Racine—Evangelina.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving and out to the last ounce; third and fourth doing their best. Racivan had the most speed and won off by himself. He stumbled in a false breakaway and threw his rider, but was stopped before he had a chance to run away. Ernest Wiles ran a fair race. He was under a drive from the three-eighths post home. Charlo quit badly in the last hundred yards. Hub Prather is a good looker, but seems to be of no account. He was well played. It was a very ordinary lot.

Scratched—10341 Mr. Johnson, 107; 12521 Pat Garrett, 104; 12482 Blaze Face, 104.
Racivan, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Ernest Wiles, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Charlo, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by Favor—Florence M.
Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won in a drive; second and third were driving also. Goose Liver was lucky and well ridden. Taber whipped him away from the post and escaped the mix-up on the first turn. He and Lord Zeni were the only ones not interfered with in the jam. As the race was run Lobengula should have won. He was sharply interfered with and had a lot of ground to make up. He was coming and Goose Liver stopping at the end. Lord Zeni dislikes a route. There was no action behind the first three. The Dauphin is of no account except in the mud. Powell, who rode Benamela, was not hurt.

Scratched—11836 Winslow, 109; 12596 Nekarnis, 105; 12518 Lucid, 108; 12518 Elkin, 118; 12493 Elidat, 108.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. It was a terrific drive for the place. Iznik had speed to loan and spreadeagled his field. He was a good horse today. Barrack ran a cracking good race, and with an equal break would have given the winner a stout argument. He was slow to get going, and, down the back stretch did not seem to have a possible chance, but through the stretch he came with a tremendous rush. Fannie Wyn is not much. She had a flying start and no excess. Hood's Brigade got somewhat the worst of the break. Lord Weir was also tangled up at the start. Watch him; he has worked very fast. Dr. Tarr ran a bad race.

Scratched—12067 Bior, 106.
Iznik, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Barrack, place, 12 to 1; show, 5 to 1. Fannie Wyn, show, 4 to 5. Hood's Brigade, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lord Weir, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.
